LONDON LYRICS.
By FREDERICK LOCKER.
1 vol. 16. pp. 15. $1.50.
"Mr. Locker's lyrics are bright and sparkling verses under an influence that makes them great merits. We can only regret that his name is not more widely known. That is an absence of that sympathy which necessarily jars upon us in the 'Bon Gavillon' ballad. There is no lack of rhythm and melody, and we would know him better if he could give us a place somewhere between Tennyson and Frost."—Westminster Review.
